Cobbwood Factory
Typifies Growth of
By-Product Industry

Yesterday's news story about the expected arrival here this week of the 300,000-pound press for the new Cobbwood, Inc., wallboard factory in the former Southwestern Power Ground property marks another step in the American industrial story of the development of by-products.

A basic industry spends years developing its "basic" product. Then one day someone studying the inevitable waste material flowing out of all production plants comes up with a process for utilizing that waste. And pretty soon the by-product division is as large as the "basic" business—perhaps larger.

The byproducts that come from the packing houses, the strange little pieces of waste that are developed while processors are making coke out of coal, and the host of things that come from petroleum "cracking" plants—all are familiar to the American business mind. When we run out of the business of developing by-products, we have discovered a new industry for existing industry—and the country got steadily bigger and better.

Wood and wood products are, next to agriculture and livestock, the most basic industry of our section. To utilize sawdust and wood chips in an industrial process—particularly a process that makes a fine-grade of wallboard—is, therefore, a tremendous step forward in the mechanization of our local economy.

The biggest surprise for you will be when you examine specimens of Cobbwood's finished product. It isn't the ordinary rough wallboard you might expect. It is a satin-surfaced slab that seems as heavy and as hard as marble—opening up a wide avenue of uses.

Israel Ready to Talk Peace

Paris, Dec. 8 — (AP)—Israel announced tonight she is willing to talk peace in the Negev desert borderland as part of general Palestine negotiations between Israel and Arab.

Israeli forces encircling an Egyptian brigade in the South Palestine desert represent the main obstacle to a Holy Land armistice such as ordered in a United Nations Security Council resolution.

The new Israeli offer was made in the special security council Palestine committee by Amos Eban, Israeli representative here.

Eban said that the Egyptian forces in the Negev desert are trapped and would have to follow the procedure of free and impartial talks between opposing military commanders on the spot.

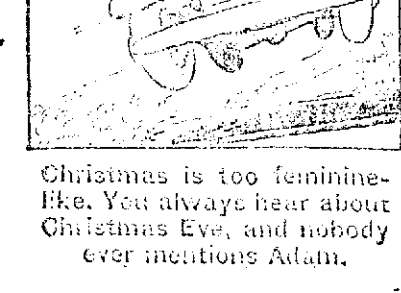

Earlier Dr. Ben-Gurion, the acting U.N. mediator for Palestine, told the committee he has received official word pleading trans-Jordan to accept an armistice, but like Egypt's previous acceptance, it was tied to the security council order.

U. S. Pouring Money Into Yugoslavia

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Dec. 8 — (AP)—Millions of American dollars are pouring into Yugoslavia to help finance Premier Marshal Tito's program of rehabilitation and social reconstruction.

A report in the Yugoslav Communist party newspaper Borba revealed that a huge majority of contributions of money and supplies reaching Yugoslavia still comes from residents and organizations in the United States.

American contributions in the last three years were listed at $15,500,000. In addition, more than $100,000 worth of medical supplies, mobile tuberculosis clinics, trucks and street sprinklers have come from America through the Yugoslav Red Cross.

The contributions from the United States do not include the huge collection sent to the Yugoslav government in exile in London in 1945.

They also do not include the unestimated millions of dollars which stream constantly from individuals—relatives and friends—in the form of cash, clothing, tinmed food and innumerable other consumer goods to private citizens.

Postal officials in Belgrade estimate that more than 90 per cent of the packages received in Yugoslavia come from the United States.

Council Dismisses 5 More City Employees, Sells Old Airport Land for $11,000

In sweeping action last night Hope City Council ordered five more employees dismissed from the city payroll bringing to 7, the number "laid-off" within the past month. This is part of a council move to cut city expenses to the bone.

At its final meeting last month two men were ordered released from the health department. Last night two ordered dismissed from the cemetery crew, two more from the street department and another from the trash hauling department.

At other action the council disposed of a "lot" of land, the form of 300 acres of land purchased in 1941 for $11,800 for the purpose of constructing an airport. The city sold the land last night to P. D. Burton, Sr. for the sum of $11,600.

Another action of the council was to dispose of the huge SPB airport from the government with the understanding that the necessity of keeping the land for that purpose.

The group negotiated a lease agreement with M. S. Bates for 750 acres of land near the airport. The lease is for the years 1949 through 1953. Price of each consecutive year is $450, $600, $650, $850 and $950.

Hope Youth Center now has authority to use all the old Elks Building for its activities. The group voted to turn it over to the Youth Center under certain terms and agreements to be worked out.

A motion was made for Water and Light Plant to donate a new bus to be used for prizes in the beautification contest during the Christmas season.

Mayor Brown informed the council that Alfred Broussard had surrendered the city bus franchise.

Berlin Mayor Knows About Communists

Berlin, Dec. 8 — (UP)—Ernest Reuter, the Socialist who is Berlin mayor, says he knows about communism because of what he learned when he was a Communist 30 years ago.

Reuter was a pacifist when the Kaiser started his war in 1914, but in 1918 he was a Communist. He was converted during the two years he was a prisoner of war in Russia. Reuter broke with the Communists when they put on an uprising in central Germany. He went into the Socialist ranks which he now leads.

Reuter wears a French beret, carries an English walking stick and holds a professorship in a Turkish university. He says he is proud to be a German. He is 60 and the master of many languages.

The Social Democratic party which won the Sunday election in Western Berlin and picked him for mayor has a program reminiscent of the British labor party.

Reuter has long been a fighter for workers' rights. He was a Communist back in the days when the party could have that name without seeming to serve only the will of Russia. When he quit he teamed up with the leftist Social Democrats because they profess to be free and free men and will have nothing to do with allegiance to a foreign power.

As Hitler rose in power Reuter had become prominent enough as a socialist to know Germany was no longer safe for him. The Nazis threw him into concentration camps twice. After the second term, he fled to Turkey and taught civil administration there for four years.

He returned to Berlin in 1946 and took on leadership of his party. After Berlin's first free elections, he was chosen for mayor. The Russians vetoed him. Four power control still was functioning then, so Reuter could not take office. The election Sunday was an affair of the United States, Britain and France and the Russians having forbidden voting in their zone.

Col. Okikatsu Arao was sentenced to six years.

Last Cotton Crop Estimate Some Lower

Washington, Dec. 8 — (AP)—The agriculture department, in its final report of the year, today estimated 1948's cotton crop at 14,037,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight.

This figure is 229,000 bales less than 15,166,000 forecast a month ago. It compares with last year's crop of 11,857,000 and with a 1937-48 average of 12,014,000.

Production of cottonseed was estimated at 6,636,000 tons. This compares with 4,691,000 last year and 4,941,000 for the ten-year average. It of lint cotton per acre was estimated at 21.15 pounds. Last year it was 20.7 and 25.2 for the ten-year average.

The department estimated the acreage to be harvested at 23,239,000 acres. This compares with 23,239,000 last year and 23,631,000 for the ten-year average.

The portion of this year's planted acreage abandoned before harvest was put at 1.6 per cent. Abandonment last year was 1.1 per cent and for the ten-year average.

In an accompanying report, the census bureau said 12,762,089 bales of this year's crop were ginned prior to Dec. 1. Ginnings to the same date last year were 1,040,613 bales and 7,307,490 two years ago.

Committee Is Un-American Says Bishop

Buck Hill Falls, Pa., Dec. 8 — (AP)—Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam today called the congressional committee on Un-American Activities "un-American itself" for its attempt "to pin the Communist label on some church men and church groups."

The New York minister told a reporter the business of naming and calling men "Communists" or any other label without first giving that person a chance to answer the accusation is in itself un-American.

Bishop Oxnam said such "absurd charges" are "disgraceful efforts to silence men on the pulpit by threatening to call them Communists."

"We will not be silenced," Bishop Oxnam declared. "We plan to keep on talking. And to make sure our ministers everywhere keep on talking."

The bishop is attending the annual meeting of the board of missions and church extension of the Methodist church which opened here yesterday.

Dr. Earl R. Brown of New York, executive secretary of home missions and church extension, told the board members yesterday the Methodist must establish one new church a day for the next four years to keep pace with the population shift.

Chiang Units Smash Through Red Troops

Nanking, Dec. 8 — (AP)—Units of the government's hardpressed 12th army group were reported today to have smashed through Communist entrenchment in the crucial battle for Nanking.

The government military news agency said these units had made contact with other Nationalist troops advancing northward from the news Hwai river defense line about 100 miles northwest of here.

There was no confirmation of the report by foreign military circles. The military news agency report had no other details.

The bulk of the 12th has been trapped in the last weeks south of Suhsien, rail town 15 miles south of fallen Suchow. The army group, short on food and ammunition, is getting some supplies by air.

Meanwhile, other Communist columns were reported lighting the noose on the 250,000 government troops which abandoned Suchow a week ago in an attempt to relieve the 12th army group.

The former Suchow garrison, made up of three army groups, is trapped in a shrinking pocket about 50 miles southwest of Suchow.

Neutral military observers reported that elements of 12 Communist columns have been identified as the encircling force. Gen. Chen Yi was reported moving additional columns against the pocket.

Three Nationalist army groups were described as offering stiff resistance. The second army group, led by German-trained Chiu Ching-Chuan—one of the Nationalists' most respected field commanders—was bearing the brunt of the Red attack.

Clear warfare intensified activity from Nanking's airfield. Fighters and bombers were shuttling between the capital and the combat areas to the north and west.

The critical nature of the battle was reflected by a government order extending martial law to the Wuhan area of central China. This includes the big city of Hankow.

The government also was rushing all available reinforcements to the Hwai river defense line.

Students Indicted in Connection With Death of Girl

Fayetteville, Dec. 8 — (AP)—Two University of Arkansas students who had been on an allnight party with a young girl before she was found dead have been indicted by the Washington county grand jury.

The two, Adrian Dean Farmer, 22, Menard, Ark., and Lucian Dale Lovell, 21, Clinton, are each charged with recklessness and negligence and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. Lovell also is charged with driving a car while drunk.

The grand jury returned the indictments late yesterday as it completed investigation of juvenile delinquency.

Sheriff Bruce Crider found the body of 13-year-old Bernice Robbins in an automobile stalled in a creek near here Sunday. An older sister was in the vehicle. She was not injured.

A coroner's report said Bernice died of carbon monoxide poisoning. Crider said the victim's sister admitted they had been on an all-night party with two students.

2 More Sought for Handing Key Papers to Reds

Washington, Dec. 8 — (AP)—Congressional spy hunters today stalked two more men accused of looting government files of papers which may have let Russia crack America's vital diplomatic codes a decade ago.

The House Un-American Activities committee hoped to track down the pair for questioning at a closed-door session today.

Rep. Nixon (R-Calif.) said the committee is after still a third person in questioning later on. The names of all three, he told reporters, were first mentioned in New York Monday night by Whitaker Chambers, admitted former Communist courier who now is a senior editor of the "Time" magazine.

It appears from the committee evidence that "foreign nations" have had a good look at those diplomatic codes—and two members of the house group suggested that one of the nations was Russia, the others were analogously Germany and Japan.

As the spy inquiry supplies a spectacular finale for the nearly eight 90th congress, there were other late developments:

1. A New York grand jury continued its separate espionage investigation with U. S. District Attorney John E. McGohey saying it is closer than ever "to a final conclusion."

2. The FBI and state department promised help to the house committee inquiry. John E. Pennington, assistant secretary of state, told reporters that the FBI had been "tightened and" "I would rather think" there can be no more leaks of official secrets.

3. The committee made new attempts to locate a typewriter on which it thinks some state department documents were copied.

4. It tried to find out where the copies were made.

5. The committee held the evening open for a possible night session with Chambers, in case the grand jury releases him.

Nixon said the three men newly named by Chambers as part of a transmission line that fed on confidential government papers are civilians and he thinks all now are off the federal payroll.

He said he used to be in the state department. He said he was a high state department official who now heads the Carnegie endowment for international peace.

The committee already has released part of the testimony in which Chambers accused himself of supplying secret state department documents to him in 1937 and 1938 for relay to a Russian agent.

The testimony was taken in preliminary to the trial of a $75,000 libel suit Hiss has brought against Chambers in Baltimore.

Hiss had denied the charges in a statement.

Garland Judge Is Suspended

Hot Springs, Dec. 8 — (AP)—Garland County Judge J. E. Hurst, under grand jury indictment charging malfeasance, was suspended from office today by Circuit Judge Clyde Brown.

Hurst's attorneys said he would comply with the order immediately turning down his $15,000 salary and turning off the keys over to Sheriff H. G. Brown.

Under normal procedure, Governor Loney will appoint a successor to serve as county judge until the expiration of Hurst's term Dec. 31.

No date has been set for Hurst's trial on the malfeasance charge.

In the indictment, returned yesterday, the Garland grand jury accused Hurst of selling county property. Specifically, it alleged he sold a road grade to Lee Clements, former Hot Springs city engineer.

Hurst has been named a defendant in three separate civil suits charging that he erred in disposing of county property.

He was elected county judge in 1946 when a group of former servicemen led by Gov. E. S. McMath ousted a political organization headed by former Mayor Lee McLaughlin. Hurst did not seek reelection last summer.

The grand jury also returned an indictment charging Gib Sellers, professional gambler, with a conspiracy in the selling of county property. Specifically, it alleged he sold a road grade to Lee Clements, former Hot Springs city engineer.

Highway Plan to Await Vote of People

Little Rock, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Consideration of state highway appropriations has been deferred until voters approve or reject Gov.-elect Sid McMath's road bond plan.

The budget committee of the Arkansas Legislative Council voted today not to act on the highway department's request for $19,000,000 for each of next two years pending outcome of a probable special election on McMath's proposal.

McMath campaigned on a plan calling for four annual bond issues totaling $28,000,000 to finance highway construction. Each issue would be voted on at a special election.

The governor-elect plans to seek authorization of a special election during the first week of the 1949 legislative session opening next month. If authorized by the legislature, as expected, an election will be called by McMath before the end of the session.

McMath figures that proceeds of the bond issues combined with federal and state funds would make $80,000,000 available for road work during the next four years.

The budget committee agreed that no intelligent study of highway appropriations needs can be made until fate of the bond plan is known and that in the meantime attention can be given other budget requests.

The budget committee studies money requests of state departments, institutions and agencies and then makes recommendations to the legislature, which makes the appropriations.

McMath has asked the budget committee to cut non-essential construction items to keep appropriations within the amount of revenue anticipated and to make more money available for building roads.

Man on Trial for Rape of Daughter

Paragould, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Roy Newboles, former Paragould Tavern operator, who has been at odds with the law for more than a year, went on trial here today on a charge that he raped his 25-year-old daughter.

The daughter, Mrs. Frances Upton, testified in circuit court that Newboles ravished her in his automobile near here the night of last July 4 and on other occasions during the past year.

She was to be cross-examined by the defense this afternoon.

Only yesterday the Arkansas Supreme court affirmed a two-year prison sentence for Newboles in the fatal shooting of William Davis, 23-year-old Leachville man, at his tavern Oct. 8, 1947.

Newboles was convicted of manslaughter in the case. He is charged with first degree murder in the shooting of another Leachville man, Gerald Mays, at the same time.

THE STORY: Durand discovers that Bunny has received a letter addressed to "Miss Mabel Greene." She denies it. He is certain she has burnt the letter and later he finds a charred edge bearing the signature, "Bunny."

XXXV

Nothing more, then, for five days. No more visits to the post office. No more letters sent, no more letters received. Whatever had been said was said, and only the inside of a fireplace knew what that had been.

For five days after that she did not even go out, she took no more walks. She loitered about the rooms, noncommunicative, self-assured. As if waiting for something. As if waiting for an appointed length of time to pass. Five days to pass.

Then on the fifth day, suddenly, without a word, the door of her room opened after long closure and he beheld her coming down the stairs arrayed for excursion. She was carefully dressed, far more carefully, far more exquisitely, than he had seen her for a long time past. She had taken a hot curling iron to her hair; ripples of grizzle undated it. Her lips were frankly red, not merely covertly so. Her floral essence was strong to the point of headiness.

She was going out. She made this plain, over and above his own powers of observation. As if she wanted no mistake about it, no hindrance. "I'm going out," she said. "I'll be back soon."

He did not ask her where.

That was about three in the afternoon.

At five she was not back yet. At six. At seven.

It was dark, and he lit the lamps, and they burned their way toward eight. She wasn't back yet.

Red Fliers Say War Between U. S., Russia Inevitable

Wiesbaden, Germany, Dec. 7 — (AP) — Two Russian air force fliers who fled the Soviet Union said today they believe war between Russia and United States is inevitable.

The fliers, Lt. Peter A. Prigov, 28, and Anatol D. Barsov, 31, landed in Austria Oct. 9 and came here as "guests" of U. S. Air Force headquarters in Europe.

They said the Red armed forces are armed with "disobedience" and could not win against the United States. They said 70 per cent of the Russian people hate the Communist regime.

"But due to fear, they don't dare do anything about it," said Prigov, a former navigator.

Interest High in the Card, Bears Battle

Chicago, Dec. 8 — (AP) — Not since Red Grange turned pro in his heyday of the roaring 20's has professional football in Chicago reached such frenzied heights as it has for the Cardinals-Bears battle in Wrigley field Sunday.

The cross-town rivals, each with 10 wins and one defeat for the campaign, tangle for the Western division crown of the National Football league.

All seats have been sold for nearly two months and standing room tickets also have gone, assuring a crowd of more than 51,000. The game is to be televised, the first this season by the two Chicago teams.

Bears' officials say about 150,000 persons are clamoring for seats for the game, which they tab the greatest box office natural in the history of pro football.

The Cardinals, who broke into greatness only in the past two years, defeated the Bears twice last season enroute to winning the national crown. The same club is back this time with Charlie Trippi, Elmer Angsman, Pat Harder, Paul Christman and others making it the most feared offensive unit in the league.

The Bears, an overwhelming defensive team with plenty of punch, too, have added some new attractions — such as Johnny Lujack, Bobby Layne and Lineman George Connor. The Northsiders are the only club to defeat the cards this season. It was 23-17 in the first game the Southsiders played following the driving room death of Tackle Stan Mauldin. Christman, their No. 1 quarterback, broke his wrist in the second quarter against the Bears. He is just now getting back in service and will be ready for full time duty Sunday.

The rivalry between the two clubs started in 1920 and is the oldest in pro football. The Bears hold an edge with 36 wins, 12 losses with six games being tied. During this span the Bears have uncorked 950 points to the Cards' 523.

Continued, the Bears are slight favorites.

Unknowns Giving Big-Timers a Scare

Miami, Fla., Dec. 8 — (AP) — A warning that the big-name pros are going to have to hustle to maintain leadership in the $10,000 Miami open was sounded yesterday when a pair of virtual unknowns carded 68's in the qualifying round.

Buster Mills, 31-year-old former caddy from Kansas City, Mo., topped the re-designed Miami Springs course in 35-32-64.

A short time later Ned Cooper, pro from Charlotte, N. C., carded a 32 on the front nine and 36 on the back nine for 68.

The open silver jubilee edition, begins Thursday.

Minor Leagues Open Annual Convention

Minneapolis, Dec. 8 — (UP) — The minor leagues opened their annual convention today on the unique note of "too much prosperity."

George M. Trautman, the minor league commissioner, who presided over the meetings at which more than 600 club presidents were represented, said baseball had to face the fact that inflation was a serious problem.

Even though attendance hit an all-time high during last season, Trautman stressed difficulties which plagued certain clubs and which threatened eventually to force them out of business.

The unfortunate Newark, N. J., club, long the prize minor league franchise of the New York Yankee dynasty, was cited as a typical example of the most pressing of these problems — television.

Television is considered a by-product of prosperity because so many persons in the United States now have enough money to buy sets. Therefore, they can choose to watch major league games in the leisure of their living rooms instead of making the effort to attend minor league games in parks which they cannot see the same caliber of play. Those circumstances literally wrecked Newark as a minor league town.

The Cardinals, who broke into greatness only in the past two years, defeated the Bears twice last season enroute to winning the national crown. The same club is back this time with Charlie Trippi, Elmer Angsman, Pat Harder, Paul Christman and others making it the most feared offensive unit in the league.

Art Shires Is Charged With Murder

Dallas, Tex., Dec. 8 — (AP) — Art (The Great) Shires, who mixed baseball with boxing, has been charged with murder in the death of W. H. (Hi) Erwin, a former minor league player and umpire.

Shires was charged yesterday with murder with malice aforethought in the court of Justice of the Peace W. L. Sterrett.

The one-time major league first baseman was first questioned Monday night and released on a $5,000 bond in a habeas corpus writ.

He was to appear before Judge Robert A. Hall in district court today.

Erwin 58, died in a hospital here Saturday. Officers quoted Shires as saying he had a fight with Erwin Oct. 3.

Dr. P. A. Rogers, one of the physicians who examined Erwin, said he found that Erwin had died from hypostatic pneumonia and cirrhosis of the liver with contributing causes being blows to the head, chest and abdomen.

The 42-year-old Shires, whose turbulent career in the big leagues made headlines in the late twenties and early thirties, had no comment when informed of the murder charge.

The charge said that Shires "willfully and with malice aforethought" killed William Hiram Erwin by beating him with his (the defendant's) fists and stomping him with his (the defendant's) feet, with shoes on.
